

Herschel Specter CV

BS Applied Mathematics, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn 1955

MS Nuclear Engineering, MIT 1957

Professional Engineer, State of New York

AEC (Now Nuclear Regulatory Commission) Licensing Manager for Indian Point 3.

Formerly, Technical Advisor to the Executive Vice President, New York Power Authority (NYPA).

Manager of NYPA's Indian Point Adjudicatory Hearing.

Chairman of two National Committees on Emergency Planning.

Guest Lecturer on Emergency Planning at Harvard's School of Public Health.

Performed State-of-the-Art Emergency Planning Analysis for Indian Point, Assuming a Successful Terrorist Attack.

Provided Testimony to the National Academy of Sciences on Fukushima and on the Safety of Spent Fuel Pools at Nuclear Plants.

Published a Number of Emergency Planning and Energy Policy
Papers

Served, at Diplomat rank, for 5 years at the International Atomic Energy Agency. Headed up the international standards effort on the safe design of nuclear power plants.